The Door Through Space by Marion Zimmer Bradley I read this; because it was there. Well, it's written by Marion Zimmer Bradley and its one of the first novels of her's that was published. I loved The Colors of Space but honestly did not read much more than that because her stories seemed predominantly fantasy and at the time I was reading science fiction.

The door through space is matter teleportation, I'm not giving away any secrets, or a plot spoiler. It's a subplot that just sort of fizzles out. The dangerous toys is another subplot that never gets explained. The blood feud is set up early and raises all sorts of expectations, but also disappoints.
