The Snow Child English Edition

I put off reading The Snow Child because it wasn't something I would have chosen for myself without the extremely positive reviews of other goodreads members. If it is not obvious to you from the description alone, then this book is not mostly plot-driven. It's charm is upheld by the characters, the relationships, and the sad, cold mood that seems to permeate the entire novel from open to close.

It may be the shortest story of The Bloody Chamber collection (it's approximately 500 words), but Angela Carter manages to pack a lot into 'The Snow Child'. It takes the theme of jealousy from its 'Snow White' origins and explores aspects of male power and desire, adding a heavy dose of horror to the fairy tale inspiration as well - though fairy tales are horror stories anyway ...
